CDA Court Hears Talk On 'Charity'

Rev. Michael Moser, assistant pastor of Nativity Church, was guest speaker at the March business meeting of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, held Monday evening at the parish hall. "Charity" was the subject of Father Moser's spiritual message, and he recommended certain reading, Scriptural, book and pamphlet, to aid in developing charity of heart. He also touched upon the charitable acts of St. Catherine of Sienna for whom the local court was named.

A report on the meeting of the Torrance Coordinating Council which she and Mrs. Leonard Young attended was given by the grand regent, Mrs. Don Cowden, during the business meeting. Mrs. Leroy Armstrong announced the program, and the ways and means chairman, Mrs. Young, told of plans for a dessert luncheon and bridge at the Southern California Gas Co. on April 15. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Young, preferably in groups of four for bridge play to follow the serving of dessert.

Results of the poetry contest, sponsored annually at Nativity School, were announced by the education chairman, Mrs. William Healy. Judging of the fifth and sixth grade entries resulted in the following awards: First, Adelina Paloma; second, Colleen O'Hara; third, Lillian Buffaio. Harold LeBlanc was first-place winner, Suzanne Lundeen, second, and Michele Green, third, among the seventh and eighth graders' original poems.

Mrs. Joseph Terkmany is chairman of the annual communion breakfast, scheduled this year for Sunday, April 27; she told of plans for the affair. Only coffee and tea were served, in observance of the Lenten fast.

El Camino Faculty Wives Stage Style Show Tonight

Latest styles in spring fashions will be on display tonight at 8:30, when Faculty Wives of El Camino College present their annual fashion show in the Campus Center.

Proceeds of the show will go to the Faculty Wives club welfare fund, according to Mrs. William T. Mooney Jr., chairman of the show committee. Information regarding tickets for the show is available by calling Mrs. Mooney.

Theme of the 1958 style event will be "Geophysical Year of Fashion." Assisting Mrs. Mooney and her committee in staging the yearly presentation is Mrs. Edward Swartz, a faculty wife affiliated with a Torrance department store.

Faculty wives who will serve as models will be Mrs. Lloyd L. Brown of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Fredryc R. Darby of Torrance, Mrs. Terrel L. Dalton, Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Edward E. O'Neill, Long Beach; Mrs. John de la Hays, Torrance; and Mrs. George D. Watt, Torrance.

A mother-daughter combination will be seen in this year's event as Mrs. Jackie Friedman of Inglewood, daughter of Mrs. Watt, joins the parade of stylists. Mrs. Friedman, a PBX operator, is on the staff at El Camino.

Record Club Announces Next Meeting

Members of the Vellez Music and Record Club will meet at the home of Mrs. I. Brumblow, 24208 Arlene Ave., Lomita, Saturday, 7 p.m.

The group's 20 top tunes will be announced at the meeting. Artists Barney Spencer, Sam King and Warner Webster will present their winning numbers accompanied by Verna Flynn, club pianist and soprano.

Publishing Director Henry Weaver invited songwriters and instrumentalists to phone him for information concerning the organization.

Refreshments and door prizes will be featured at Saturday's meeting.

Birthdays Celebrated

David Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foley of South Shores was honored on two occasions marking his sixth birthday. On Saturday, David was host to a group of his friends at a picnic at Point Fermin Park.

"Space" was the theme of the party and the guests were presented with model airplanes. The picnic table was decorated with space ships. After a weiner roast, the boys gathered shells along the beach.

David's guests were Jimmie Brown, David Cole, Rickey Hamp, Larry Burns, Nicky Mosich and Steven Gerking. David shared honors with his father at a family birthday dinner given at the Foley home. With David and his parents, were his sister, Margaret Ann, his grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith and three children.

PUBLIC CARD PARTY TUESDAY

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a public card party on Tuesday evening, March 25, in the Woman's Clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. Games will start promptly at 8 p.m.

The usual games will be played with prizes going for high score. During the adding of the tallies, refreshments will be served by Mrs. Cora Hill and her committee.

RUMMAGE SALE PLANNED HERE

Nativity Catholic Church Altar Society will stage its Spring Rummage Sale May 9 and 10 at the Parish Hall.

Mrs. Harry F. Kale and Mrs. Milton Boudreaux are co-chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. James J. Junior and Mrs. Frank Dihope.

Those who wish to donate rummage should phone Mrs. Robert Moffitt, 1434 Post Ave., or Mrs. L. S. Glass, 3040 Opal St., for free pick-up.

Annual State Baptist Rally For Women Held in Torrance

The annual State rally for Baptist Business and Professional Women was held Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Torrance.

The rally began at 2 p.m. with departmental buzz sessions so that officers for the coming year would be well informed. The conference groups consisted of the following: Spiritual Life, Love Gifts, Programs, White Cross, Reading, Vice-Presidents and circle chairman. One hundred and twenty officers and members of the Business and Professional Women's circles from the following cities were represented: Covina, El Cajon, Fullerton, Garden Grove, Gardena, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pasadena, Santa Ana, San Diego, Santa Monica, and Santa Barbara.

Miss Winona P. Hainier, state vice-president of Business and Professional Women presided over the meeting. The Baptist groups support scholarships for Indian students at Bacone College, Bacone, Okla. which is the only Christian college for Indian students in the United States.

The Torrance women have a senior and junior circle of which Mrs. A. L. Fish has served as vice-president for the past two years, and supports one Bacone scholarship per year.

A banquet followed at 5:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. The spring theme was carried out in decorating and beautiful bouquets of iris and daffodils adorned the tables.

Mrs. Marjanet Worrell, a missionary from India, in native costume, was the guest speaker for the evening. Her topic was, "India Speaks to Us."

Special music was supplied by the trio from the Torrance Baptist church, Mmes. Weldon Hardin, Jack Douglas, and Walter Stewart, who sang two numbers, entitled, "A Little Talk with Jesus," and "Give Me Thy Heart." The devotional, "Living Waters" was brought by Mrs. Robert Case, Harbor Assn. president of the Woman's Baptist Mission Society of Southern California. Mrs. W. R. Campbell, hospitality chairman, for the local group was assisted by a committee consisting of Mmes. Pete White, C. Severin, W. Hardin, C. Pickett, D. Angel, W. C. Mattern, J. Puckett, and Miss Johnetta Doris.

Reunion At Harris Home

A family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris in North Torrance. Incentive for the get-together was the visit of Mr. Harris' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Harris and children of Provo, Utah. The visitors arrived on Wednesday and left Monday morning for their home.

At Sunday's affair, 28 relatives were slated at the dinner table.

Others attending besides the hosts and honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Minot Rugg, Mr. and Mrs. Don Healey, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bodley and son, Leslie, of San Luis Obispo, Mr. and Mrs. William Pierpoint and family of San Pedro.

HEAD STATE RALLY . . . Annual State Rally for Baptist Business and Professional Women was held at the Torrance Baptist Church last Saturday. Guest speaker was a missionary from India, Miss Marjanet Worrell. Supervising the rally were (from left) Mrs. Weldon Hardin, committee member; Mrs. W. R. Campbell, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Dale Angel, committee member, and Mrs. A. L. Fish, vice president.
